Numb. 5197

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday February 6 to Tuesday February 9. 1713.

Berlin, February 6. N. S.

THE King return'd two Days ago from Potſdam, and aſſiſted yeſterday in Council. His Majeſty has lately named the Sieurs Lottoff, Grapendorf, and Weiliknitz for three of his Chamberlains. Prince George of Heſſe Caſſel, who has been made a Major General, and Colonel of the Regiment that was commanded before by his Brother the Hereditary Prince, intends to go very ſoon to his Quarters in Weſtphalia. It is ſaid his Majeſty will ſet out within a Month for Koningſberg, in order to be Crown'd there. We hear from Petersbourg, that the Czar was making great Preparations for carrying on the War againſt Sweden, in caſe a Peace be not concluded at the Congreſs which is to be held at Brunſwick.

Hanover, February 6. N. S. Baron Goertz is come hither from Berlin, and intends to go in a Day or two to Brunſwick, where Count Schonborn arrived on the 4th. Yeſterday Monſieur Schleinitz, the Muſcovite Envoy reſiding here, and Count Reventlau, Miniſter of the Duke of Holſtein, ſet out for the ſame Place. Prince Kurakin, the Czar's Ambaſſador to the States-General, being appointed his Plenipotentiary to treat of a Peace in the North, is likewiſe expected there very ſoon from the Hague. Prince William of Heſſe Caſſel is come to ſpend a few Days at this Court. Letters from Holſtein bring an Account, that the Governor of Tonningen being inform'd that the Danes had a deſign to Surprize the Place by Night, and obſerving that they were advancing to Attack it, order'd the Cannon from the Ramparts to be fired at them, and kill'd ſome of their Men: But the Danes give out, that the occaſion of their moving was only to reinforce the Guards, and by that means to hinder the Soldiers of the Garriſon, who were come to them under pretence of Deſertion, from returning into the Place, as ſeveral of their Comrades had done before.

Hamburgh, February 9. N. S. The number of Perſons that dy'd here laſt Week, amounts to no more than Sixty eight. The King of Denmark and the Elector of Hanover have ſent Phyſicians hither, to examine and give them an account, whether the City be quite free from all Infection. They are expected here this Day, and we are in hopes that after they have made their Enquiry, a Communication will immediately be open'd with the Dominions of thoſe Princes. The Counts Schonborn and de Metch, Plenipotentiaries of his Imperial Majeſty at the Congreſs of Brunſwick, are already arrived there, and ſeveral other Miniſters are expected very ſoon. We have receiv'd advice from Copenhagen, that Colonel Jagorinski was come thither, to give the King of Denmark freſh Aſſurances of the utmoſt aſſiſtance of the Czar his Maſter, in caſe the King of Pruſſia ſhould make any Attempt in favour of the Houſe of Gottorp. His Daniſh Majeſty having received theſe Aſſurances, order'd his Generals in Holſtein not to ſuffer any more Proviſions to be carried into Tonningen. We have ſince received advice, that they have made themſelves Maſters of the Place, upon Pretence that the Governor began the Hoſtilities, by firing on the Danes, when they were in purſuit of their Deſerters. The King of Sweden has ſent a Commiſſion to Monſieur Baſſewitz, a famous Partiſan, to raiſe two Regiments of Horſe in Mecklenbourg, and has writ a Letter with his own Hand to the Duke, to deſire he will allow thoſe Levies to be made in his Country. Letters from Stockholm bring an account, that the States of Sweden had reſolv'd to encreaſe their Militia to Fifty thouſand Men, and that they had granted a Supply to pay the Debts his Majeſty had contracted in Turky. We are informed from thence, that Monſieur Funck, the Swediſh Envoy at the Port, is dead, and the King has reſolved not to employ any Miniſter there for the future, by which it is thought he intends to ſet out in a ſhort time from Demotica. The Rebellion againſt the Grand Signior was ſtill carried on with great Vigour. The Bachas had form'd an Army of Two hundred thouſand Men, and the Diſcontent againſt the Government was general in Aſia.

Hague, February 13. N. S. Count Van der Nath arrived here two Days ago from Great Britain, in one of Her Majeſty's Yachts. Laſt Week the Spaniſh Miniſters received an Epreſs from their Court, after which